the tropics is an area of enormous opportunity and potential the countries situated between the tropics of cancer and capricorn are largely developing in nature there is huge interest in the types of business investments made in southeast asia central africa and the amazonian tropical belts these tropical regions continue to face opportunities and challenges in attracting foreign direct investments as well as the need to complement and or compete with larger economies external to the tropics this book provides an empirical assessment of the key sociocultural economic environmental and political factors that influence the business dynamics of organizations operating within the tropics it will address but is not limited to topics such as attracting businesses to the tropics facilitating smooth stable conditions for business operations and sustainability national institutions and regulations that shape the way business is done and the increasing deployment of new technologies and entrepreneurial innovations which are defining the global tropics as a distinct business region it will offer readers a key focus for developing a deeper understanding of the factors and frameworks that influence and shape business activity in the area while the primary audience for the book consists of academics and students from the fields of economics environmental economics developmental economics business international trade tourism and area studies it will also provide a practical resource for government policy analysts wanting to fully appreciate some of the key economic and business issues facing the region

provocative and reflective this volume on the notion of knowledge and innovation in the business industry provides readers with a holistic approach to the subject of knowledge structuring their arguments around four case studies of innovation within four entirely different contexts håkansson and waluszewski invite the business minded reader to consider the costs of adopting new knowledge and innovation within a business setting this book questions the long held assumption that new knowledge and innovation are universally advantageous follows the tremor of an innovation as new knowledge reverberates through or is dampened by the larger economic community including cultural structures the industrial standards and the foundational assumptions that rule a particular economic domain focuses in particular on the interfaces where the innovative agent connects to its customers suppliers and competitors an ideal reference source for postgraduate students taking advanced courses in science and technology studies innovation management industrial marketing and purchasing technological development and innovation systems
